

Goldfields

The Goldfields is the largest region in WA. It is bordered by the Pilbara to the north, the Wheatbelt to the west, the Great Southern to the South West, the Southern Ocean to the south and the WA border to the east.

Living and working in the region

The Goldfields incorporates a network of public hospital facilities supported by a range of community-based services. The majority of health services are based in Kalgoorlie-Boulder and Esperance.

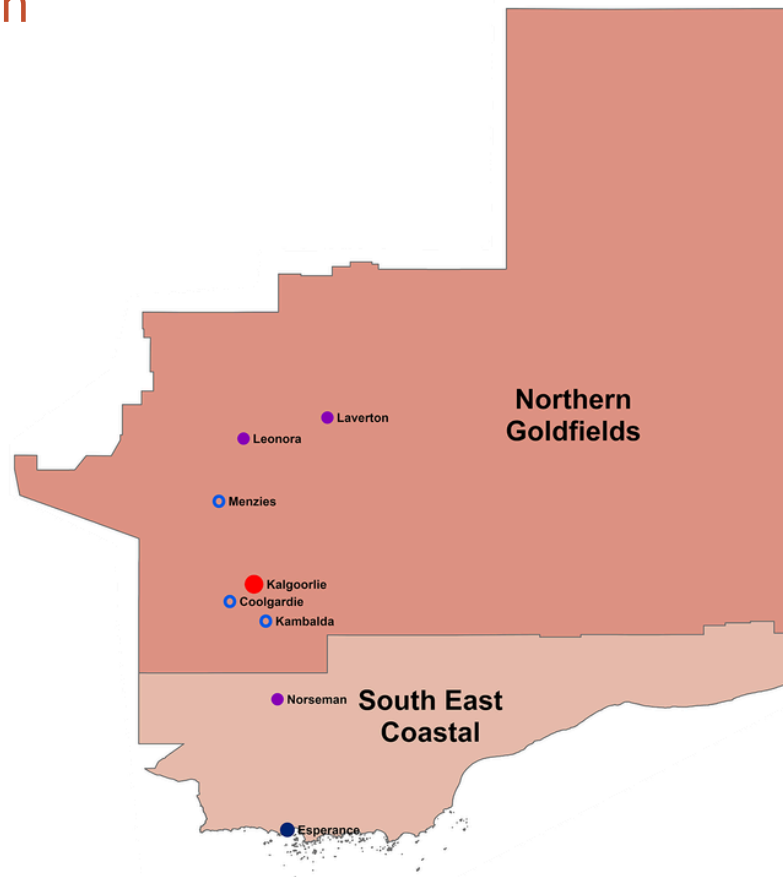

The region is also home to a number of Aboriginal Medical Services that are based in Kalgoorlie, Wiluna, Ngaanyatjarra, and the Spinifex Lands to the east of Kalgoorlie.

Kalgoorlie Health Campus

Kalgoorlie Health Campus is the regional referral centre for the region. The facility services a population of over 60,000 people.

Kalgoorlie Health Campus supports accredited Intern and Resident Medical Officer positions which provide the required experience, education and support for prevocational doctors who wish to gain rural experience.

The campus also offers the Australian Medical Council (AMC) accredited Workplace Based Assessment program (WBA).
